

THE INFORMATIVE
INITIATIVE

REPORT ON

FOSTERING FUTURE DIPLOMATS : MRAMUN'24

Over 400 young minds from across the tricity transformed into global leaders at the 3rd edition of Moti Ram Arya Sr. Sec. School's Model United Nations (MRAMUN) conference held on July 20-21. The event, held in conjunction with the school's centenary celebrations, provided a platform for students to engage in spirited debates, research, and diplomacy. The event was fully supported by our President Mr. Anil Mahajan and Director Ms. Rachna Mahajan.

Delegates represented various countries and participated in committees such as the United Nations General Assembly (UNGA), United Nations Security Council (UNSC), and the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women (UNCOSW), among others. They grappled with pressing global issues, honing their public speaking, negotiation, and critical thinking skills.

The conference was graced by the presence of Lt. Gen. Bhopinder Singh and his wife, Mrs. Bhawani Singh, along with Guest of Honour, Major Priya Jhingan. Principal Dr. Seema Biji and representatives from The Informative Initiative lauded the success of the event and emphasized its role in nurturing future leaders.

Beyond the committee sessions, the conference showcased the vibrant cultural heritage of the region through dance and music performances.

MRAMUN'24 proved to be a stepping stone for these young diplomats, inspiring them to become active participants in shaping a better world.

The conference also featured an "International Press" committee, where students donned the hats of journalists, conducting interviews, editing articles, and investigating committee debates. This unique addition allowed delegates to experience the media's role in global affairs.

Another highlight was the "All India Political Parties Meet" (AIPPM) committee, where students represented various political parties within India. They debated the introduction of a new bill, simulating the complexities of Indian politics and the importance of consensus building.

The closing ceremony was a dazzling affair, with scintillating dance and music performances that showcased the artistic talents of the students. The tireless efforts of the team from The Informative Initiative ensured the smooth running of the entire event.

MRAMUN'24 wasn't just about competition; it fostered a spirit of camaraderie and cultural exchange among the participating schools. Delegates formed lasting friendships and learned valuable lessons about teamwork and collaboration.

Principal, Dr. Seema Biji and CEO of Informative Initiative Mr. Pranav Joshi and Siddharth Sharma felicitated and expressed their congratulatory opinions on the immense success of the conference. The event honed the communication skills, analytical understanding and critical thinking of each member. With the discussion on global issues and challenges , it is thus proved that young generation is greatly aware of the future of the universe and what could be the best platform but conferences like MUN to be held year after year.

